DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

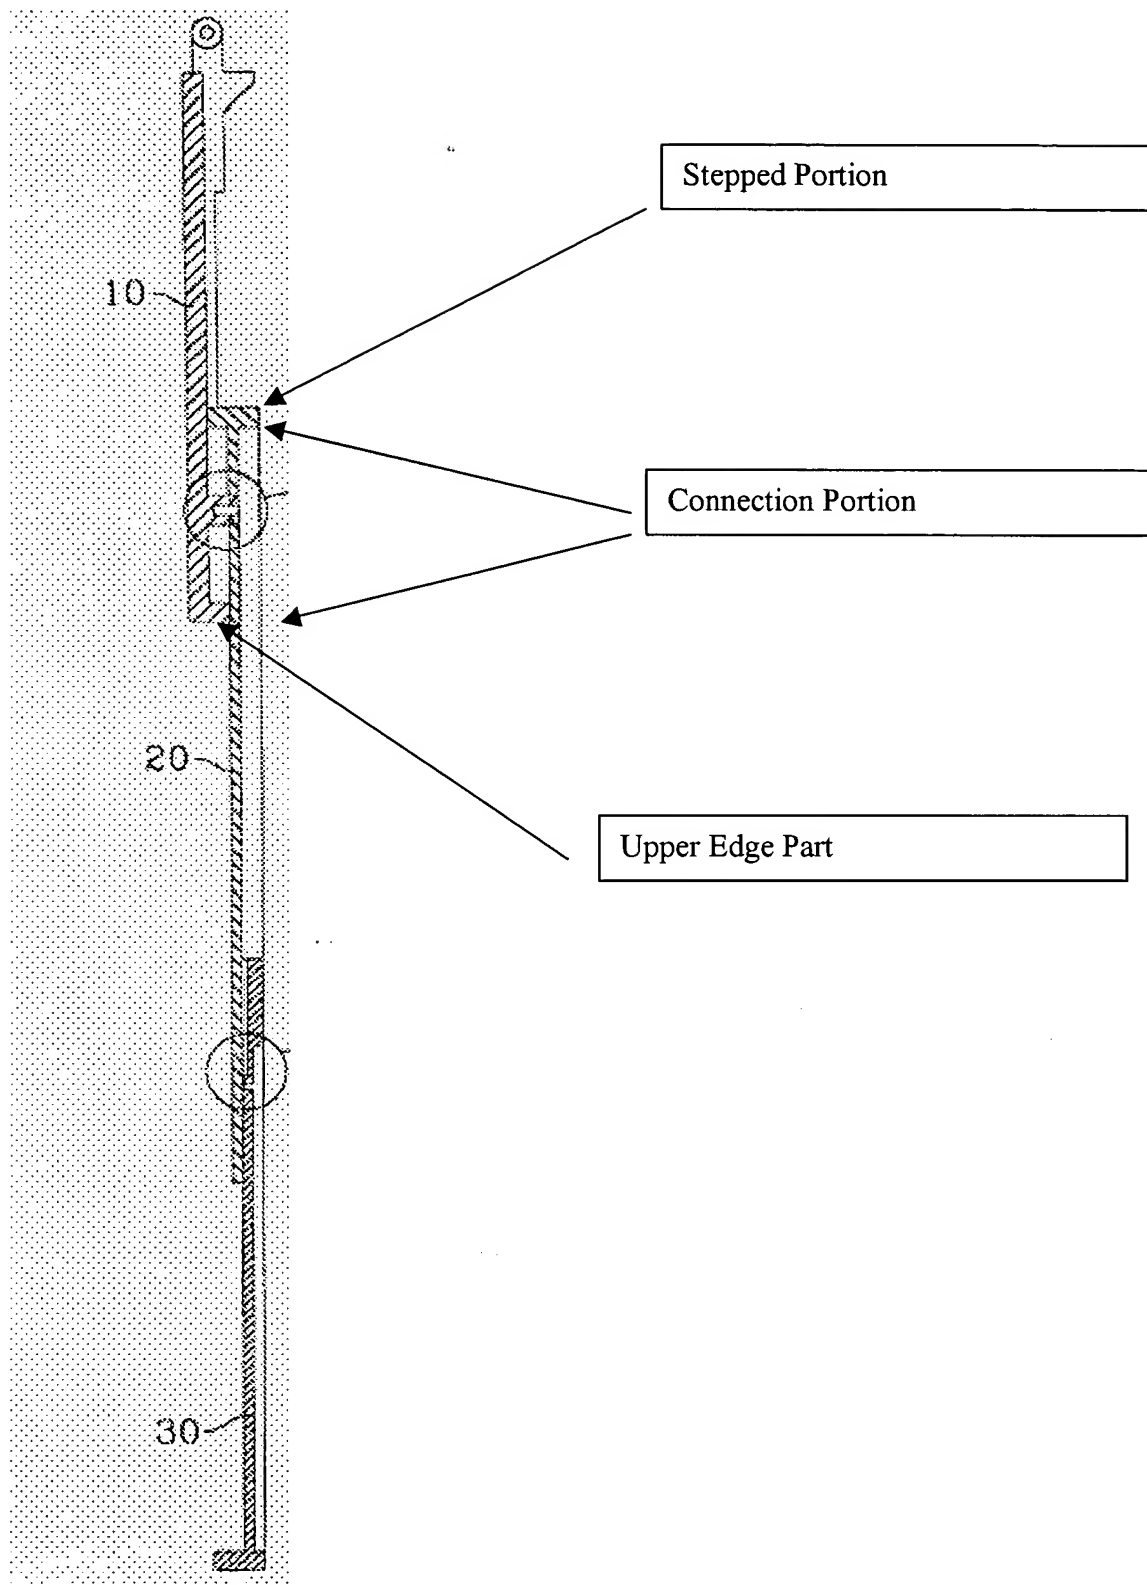

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/3/2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 1-6, 8-9, 11, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shim in view of Nagato. Shim discloses a sheet tray body (20) with a stepped portion (see Fig. 3 and below) and a connection portion (see Fig. 3 and below); a shaft (12); and a sheet feeder body with a sheet mounting portion (10) having an upper edge (see Fig. 3 and below). Shim discloses all the limitations of the claims, but it does not disclose an abutting rib thrusting member. However, Nagato discloses an extendable feed tray that includes an abutting rib thrusting member (29) for the purpose of controlling the angle of the feed tray relative to a sheet mount (see col. 4, line 47 – col. 5, line 14). It would have been obvious for a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the applicant's invention to modify Shim by utilizing an abutting rib thrusting member, as disclosed by Nagato, for the purpose of controlling the angle of the feed tray relative to a sheet mount.

Art Unit: 3651

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 12/3/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

5. The applicant states that Nagato does not disclose a thrusting member that abuts the back cover of the sheet feeder because Nagato's main tray is part of a feed tray rather than part of a main body of a sheet feeder, and Nagato's main tray extends outside the main body and does not perform any covering function. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., a main body of a sheet feeder, a specific covering function, movement) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

6. The applicant states that Nagato does not provide a "frontwardly pushing" force that moves the main tray as recited in the claims. In response, the examiner notes that in order for the thrusting member disclosed in Nagato to inhibit movement of an auxiliary tray in a direction away from a sheet mounting surface, it must push the tray toward the sheet mounting surface. Additionally, it is noted that the feature upon which applicant relies (i.e., movement) is not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Art Unit: 3651

7. The Declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed 12/3/04 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of the claims based upon Shim in view of Nagato as set forth in the last Office action because: the force to “stabilize the auxiliary tray” must exert a frontwardly pushing force.

Conclusion

8. This is a Continuing Application. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

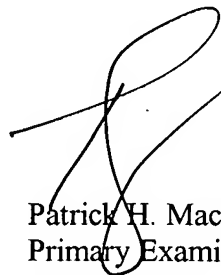

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
